
Counts use unique PMID × population−label pairs; a PMID may contribute to multiple population labels. Unknown and Multiple groups are retained as separate categories. These are curated ClinPGx drug annotations, not a systematic review or a complete count of all published pharmacogenomic research.